Dear Conference Participant:

You are invited to join more than three hundred participants from around the State at the flagship event of the year, the Annual Public Official's Conference on emergency management presented by the Utah Department of Public Safety, Division of Homeland Security. The conference will feature two days of outstanding presentations and workshops on this year's theme: "Emergency Management – The Amazing Race." The conference will be held on October 26-27, 2009 at the Zermatt Resort in Midway, Utah. Space is limited so register early and reserve your spot. This conference will provide a good networking opportunity to meet others in your field and learn new strategies for implementing public preparedness and readiness in the case of a disaster.

Lodging is provided for participants who travel over 50 miles each way from your work base. If you work within 50 miles of the conference, hotel rooms are available at the government rate. For those who want to stay and enjoy Midway before or after the conference, contact Zermatt for additional room nights.

The early registration fee of $150.00 is due by Friday, September 25th, 2009. After that date, the registration fee will be $175.00. Please make checks payable to, "UTAH DPS HLS." Registration will begin on Monday, October 26th, 2009, from 6:00-8:30 a.m. on second floor, in the main conference lobby area.

Please send your registration form and check to: Gina Flanders, Division of Homeland Security, 1110 State Office Building, Salt Lake City, UT 84114 or FAX to (801) 538-3770. You may also print out a registration form from our website at <http://homelandsecurity.utah.gov>. Please visit our website for conference updates and announcements. If you have any questions regarding this conference, please call Gina Flanders at (801) 537-9126. Thank you and we look forward to seeing you there.

Sincerely,

Scott Harrison
Deputy Director
